U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.
CIVIL ACTION

Motion for Appointment of Counsel

The Plaintiff proceeding in forma pauperis respectfully submits this request to the court to assign Pro Bono Counsel.

The Plaintiff suffers from a mental illness that requires psychiatric medications for emotional stability and overall well being. These medicines have had detrimental effects on her cognitive abilities. The Plaintiffs disability and required medication make it extra challenging to be pro se.

Prior to submitting a civil complaint the plaintiff tried to resolve her disputes directly with the parties. When those attempts failed the Plaintiff went to governing agencies.

The Plaintiff also sought free and contingency based legal representation.

The Plaintiff recognizes that she does not have a constitutional right to Counsel but pleads with the court to assign Pro Bono Counsel in order to have a chance at fair and meaningful access to justice.
